HEAVEN, HEAVEN OR HEAVEN

Answer the following questions.

1. What is a homograph? Give several examples of homographs.

Part ONE The THIRD heaven

1. Read 2 Corinthians 12.2-3 According to Paul how many heavens are there? _____
2. What is the name of the third heaven? _____
3. Read Luke 23.43 What do we learn about what happened to Jesus after he died?
4. Read Revelation 2.7 What key tree is located in this third heaven? _____
5. Read Genesis 2.9; 3.22-24 What do we know about the first time this tree appeared in scripture?
6. Read Revelation 22.1-2; 22.14; 22.18-19 What do we learn about this tree?
7. What do we know about the third heaven from the above scriptures?

Part TWO the FIRST heaven

1. Read Genesis 1.1; 1.8 What do we know about the first heaven mentioned in scripture?
2. Read Genesis 1.16-18 What do we learn about the makeup of this first heaven?
3. What is another name or word for the first heaven?
4. What do we know about the first heaven from the above scriptures?

Part THREE the SECOND heaven

CAUTION: The Bible says there are there are three heavens. The first heaven is also know as the _____. The third heaven is called _____ by Jesus. This is where believers will spend _____ with God. The SECOND heaven is harder to see and understand and the four rules of interpretation must be followed to understand it. The first thing that needs to take place is the use of a modern translation that is not 400 years old. One of the best is the NASB (New American Standard Bible).

The second heaven is one of prophetic language and is the most difficult to understand. Remember the word heaven is a homograph and in scripture has three different meanings. Here the word heaven along with the sun, moon and stars represent leadership of nations that God is moving against.

A place to see this clearly is Isaiah 13-14. According to Isaiah 13.1 the 13th chapter is an 'oracle concerning Babylon.' Isaiah 14.4 says the 14th chapter is "taunt against the king of Babylon." Read each section of scripture and answer the following questions.

1. Read Isaiah 14.1-3 Who is God promising to help and restore?
2. Read Isaiah 14.4 Who is this section of Isaiah written to or about?
3. Read Isaiah 14.11 What has happened to the king?
4. Read Isaiah 14.12 How is the king described using prophetic or symbolic language?
5. Read Isaiah 14.13-14 What was the attitude of the king before God brought judgment to him?
6. Read Isaiah 14.15-16 What has happened to this proud king?
7. How has he changed in the eyes of the people who know him?
8. Read Isaiah 14.18 What happens to most kings when they die?

9. Read Isaiah 14.19-20 What happened to this king when he died?
10. Read Isaiah 14.21-22 What happened to his family after he died?
11. Read Isaiah 14.12 How was the King described using symbolic or prophetic language?
12. What was he being compared to in nature or the physical world?
13. Read Isaiah 13.1 Who is the 13th chapter of Isaiah about?
14. Read Isaiah 13.9 Who is about to feel the judgment of God?
15. Read Isaiah 13.10 What language is used to describe their position and what is going to happen to them?
16. Who does the 'Sun' represent here? How do we know this?
17. Which 'heaven' is Isaiah 13.10 making reference to?
18. Which 'heaven' is Isaiah 14.12 & 13 making reference to?
19. What words or items are used to describe rulers when using prophetic language?

20. What word is used to describe their place or position of authority before God deals with them?

21. Read Ezekiel 32.1-2a Who is this being written about?

22. Read Ezekiel 32.7-8 What are the rulers describe as and what will happen to them?

23. What do we know about prophetic language when it is using the words 'heaven, sun, moon or stars?'
