1st John

WEEK THREE questions for further study.

- ♦ Monday—LOVE
 1. John 13.34-35 How is this a new or different commandment than existed before?
 2. How does this change the way you relate to other believers? To people in the world?
- ♦ Tuesday—LOVE
 1. Ephesians 3.17-19 How does this love change you and your responsibility to others?
 2. 2 Corinthians 5.14-15 What does it mean to you when it says, “those who live should no longer live for themselves but for HIM?”
- ♦ Wednesday—LUST
 1. James 1.13-15 How is the trap of the devil really a way we trap ourselves? What do we learn about personal responsibility for sin?
 2. 2 Peter 1.4 What choices are shown here? Are they in any way compatible with each other? (explain your answer)
- ♦ Thursday—LIFE
 1. 1 Thessalonians 4.8 How is the “quiet life” of a believer different from the life of most people? What is the ultimate goal of a “quiet life?”
 2. 1 Timothy 4.7b-8 Explain and contrast ‘bodily discipline’ with ‘godliness.’
- ♦ Friday—TRICHOTOMY
 1. How does Ezekiel 16.49-50 show the devil uses the same tactics with nations?
 2. How is this being used by the enemy to destroy the foundation of the United States of America?
- ♦ Bonus question digging much, much deeper
 1. Daniel chapters 1-6 show the attacks on the Hebrew young people by the enemy. Can you find the three different attacks and explain how each one is part of the devils standard trap?

LIFE

The world is passing away, and also its lusts;
but the one who does the will of God lives forever.

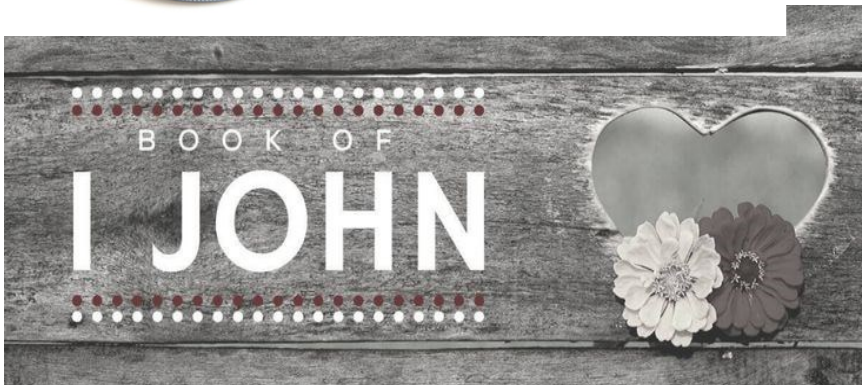

SICKNESS = SIN CURE = ACTION
