FIVE KEYS TO SUCCESSFUL MINISTRY TOGETHER

The five Keys

As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your BEST to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there. Do EVERYTHING you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way and see that they have everything they need. Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is GOOD, in order that they may provide for daily necessities and not live un-productive lives.

EVERYONE with me sends you greetings.
Greet those who love us in the faith.

GRACE be with you all. Titus 3.12-15

This week,

We will look in the scriptures to help us understand how to better live for Jesus as part of the fellowship of the believers.

MONDAY— To help us understand what it means to “do your best,” read Ephesians 6.15-16 & Colossians 4.5. What is the key to a believer doing their best? How could you apply this to your daily life?

TUESDAY— Helping others is often an act of empathy, allowing us to relate to them through personal experience. Read Hebrews 2.18 & 2 Corinthians 1.3-4. How do our life experiences help us better help others?

WEDNESDAY— Doing good or the right things can be difficult in today’s world of dog-eat-dog attitude toward life. Read Galatians 6.9 & Matthew 5.16. How is doing good in this world both a personal benefit and a kingdom benefit?

THURSDAY— Being connected with other believers is an essential part of the Christian experience. Read Acts 4.32-37. Can you find five ways the early church was connected? How do these apply to the modern church?

FRIDAY— Grace is the power of God in the life of the believer. Read 2 Corinthians 2.19 & 2 Corinthians 13-14. How does grace become a part of our daily lives?

BONUS - The sharing of believers is vital to every believer. Read Hebrews 3.13. How can believers help each other stay strong in the Lord?
